

Deon Levingston

Deon Levingston has been an influential and innovative advertising and broadcast radio and television executive for more than two decades managing some of the most successful radio stations in America. Levingston currently serves as a Regional Vice President for Radio One. Levingston previously served as the President of YMF Media. He currently serves on the boards of the Indianapolis Urban League, Conner Prairie and HARLEMWEEK. Levingston has previously been a board member of Indianapolis YMCA, The Little Red Door, Indianapolis Circle City Classic, Lawrence Township Schools Foundation, The Greater Harlem Chamber and Harlem YMCA. Levingston has received numerous honors including being named one of the Best Major Market General Managers several times by Radio Ink Magazine. Levingston earned a bachelor's degree in legal communications from Howard University in Washington, D.C.